Gumulch Temple, along the rim of the crater, from which flows a perennial stream.

A short walk from the crater is the Dalba temple with its panels, frescoes and ancient bracket figures, which are reminiscent of the Hoyas style. Equally impressive is the Chir Timpialis Complex with its Bhureh, Kund and Chir Kund, where one of the crater's freshwater streams has been channeled into a large tank.

more...

Languages spoken: Marathi, Hindi and English.

Climate and clothing: Dry, pleasant weather. Light woollens are recommended for winter and cool cottons for summer.