Nagarthah Fort: The historical town of Nagarthah is said to have been founded by Namavarah, a king of the Shilah Dynasty. The land here was rich, supposedly built by the Bhilwara, with, unlike many other forts, a large area of land.

Karnajh: Karnajh is reputed to be the best rock-cut town in the state. This is the location of the wine cellar, the forest rest house, and the Motihari house, which form the residential complex.

Nagpur Fort: The Nagpur Fort is open to the public at 6:30 AM to 6:30 PM daily except on Mondays and Fridays. Tourists must adhere to the rules and regulations specified by the authorities.

Location: The Nagpur National Park and Tiger Reserve stretches along the northern boundary of Nagpur District, covering an area of 257 sq. km, in the lower basins of the Nagari and Women rivers.

Languages spoken: Marathi, Hindi, and English.

Climate and clothing: The best time to visit Nagpur is between October and March, when the weather is pleasant. One can expect extreme climatic conditions during the rainy season, so one must dress accordingly.

Visiting rules: The Nagpur National Park is open to visitors from 6:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Entry is closed during the rainy season (July-September). Visiting hours are from 6:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Motor vehicles and mini buses are allowed, and speed limits must be followed.